

Professor James Sargent

James Sargent is an Air Force veteran and Deputy District Attorney in the Los Angeles County District Attorney's office, where he currently serves the city of Compton. A graduate of Loyola Law School, Los Angeles, James was a member of the prestigious Byrne Trial Advocacy team and served as Assistant Coach of the Byrne team from 2010 -2014. After gaining civil litigation and civil trial experience in the areas of product liability and toxic tort, James joined the District Attorney's office where he has tried over 40 criminal cases to verdict. He serves on boards and otherwise supports organizations that promote equal access to justice, the development of a more diverse legal landscape, community development and mentoring.